

Abuela's Adventure

Written and Illustrated by Cora and Bailey.

Once upon a time there was a woman, her name was Abuela. She lived in a tiny cottage, by a mountain in Columbia.

One day Abuela was on a walk.
She heard a bleating noise, she rushed over and there on the rocks was a baby goat.

She took it back to her cottage.
She took care of it until it was old enough...

...to go back to the wild.

Abuela felt very lonely
after the baby goat left.

The next day, Abuela heard a bleating noise.
She ran outside, and there was the baby goat.

The goat visited Abuela
every day.

Thank you to our parents for bringing us here, the library staff for letting us use this iPad and the books, and Ms. Ashlee for teaching us how to make an ebook.

THE END