

The secret sister by Quinn and Hadley

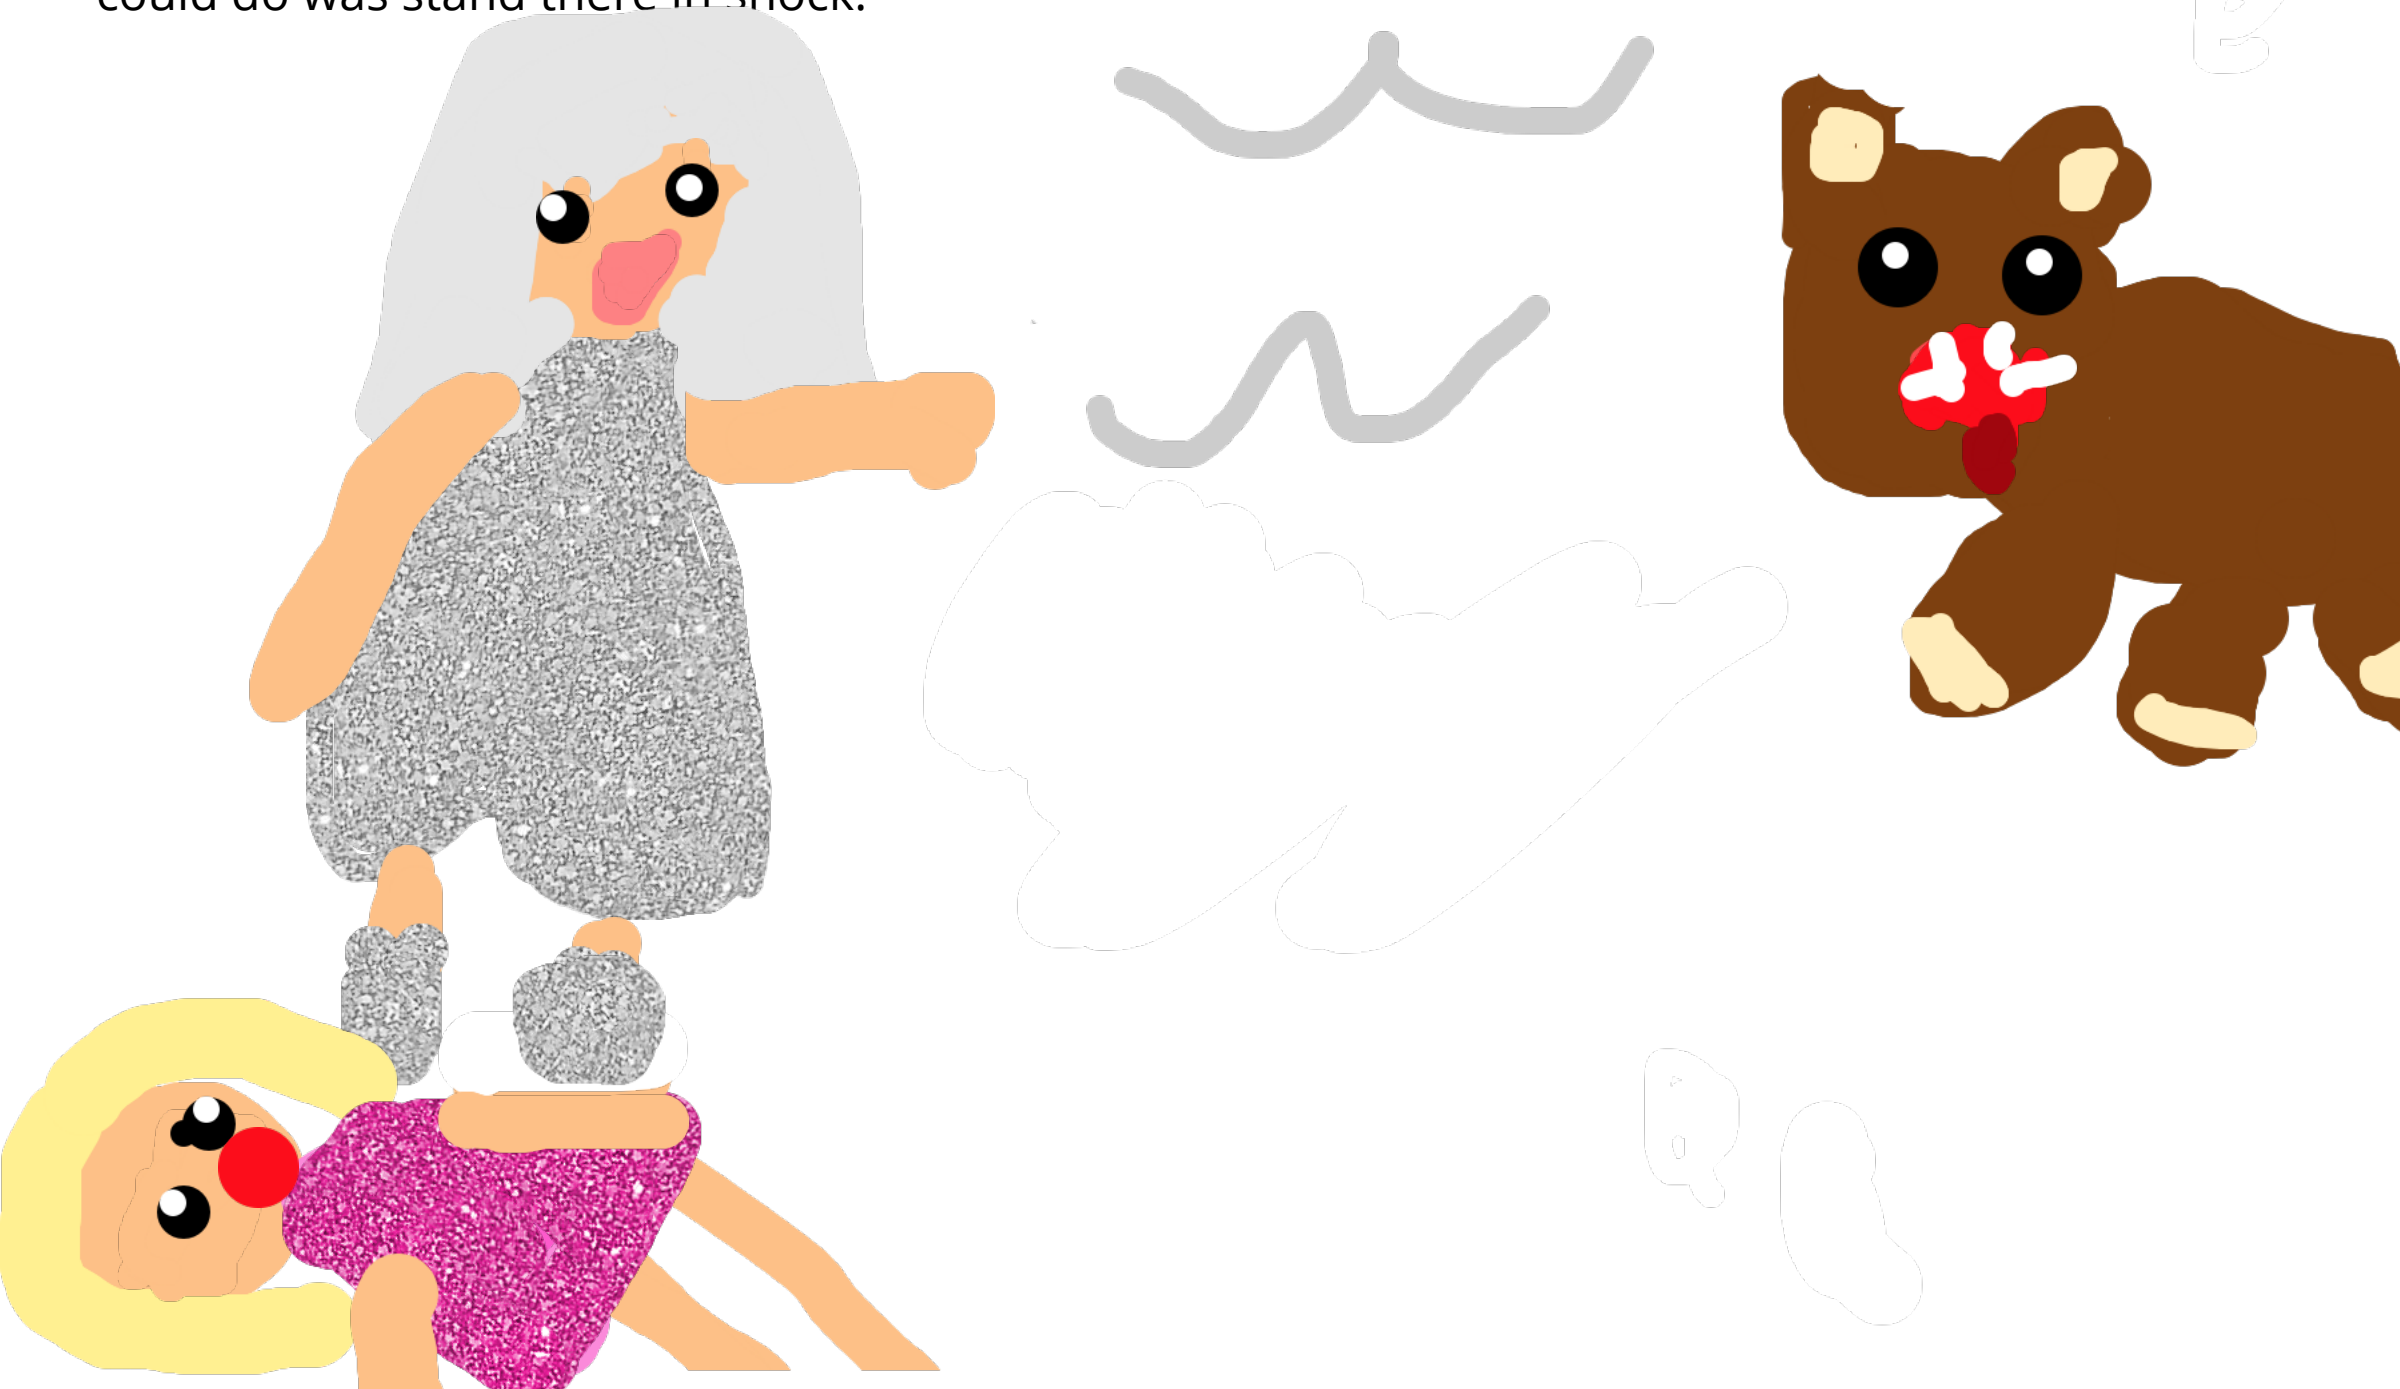

Once upon a time there was a little hut in the middle of the forest. In that hut there were two daughters and their mother and father. The father's name was Jeb, the mother's name was Lucy. The younger sister's name was Rosie and the older sister's name is Addison.

One day, mom and dad told their daughters to go outside and play because they have been inside too much. So they decided to go explore in the forest but then they got horribly lost and had no idea what to do or how to get home. But then they come across a large sleeping bear! They try to get away but they wake it up and the bear starts to charge at them!

But then, Rosie fell to the ground! But when she opened her eyes, she was expecting the bear to be attacking her but instead she saw her sister making the bear float in mid air with no struggle! Rosie was so confused that all she could do was stand there in shock.

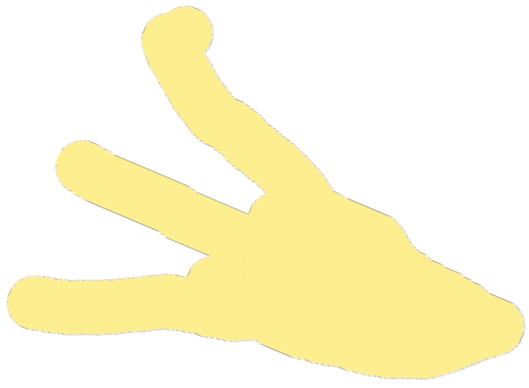

After a few minutes when her sister let the bear down Rosie still couldn't believe it! She went to her sister and said, "Addison! What.. How did you do that?! You're not like a goddess or something!" "Uh Rosie I have to tell you something... I have wind powers.. I'm adopted." Rosie couldn't believe what she heard that she stood there with her jaw dropped...

But after a couple minutes they came across a village that was being invaded by a zombie horde! So Addison used her element bracelet to transform to her wind form and used her powers to blow the zombies away. The villagers were so grateful that they named her chief of their village.

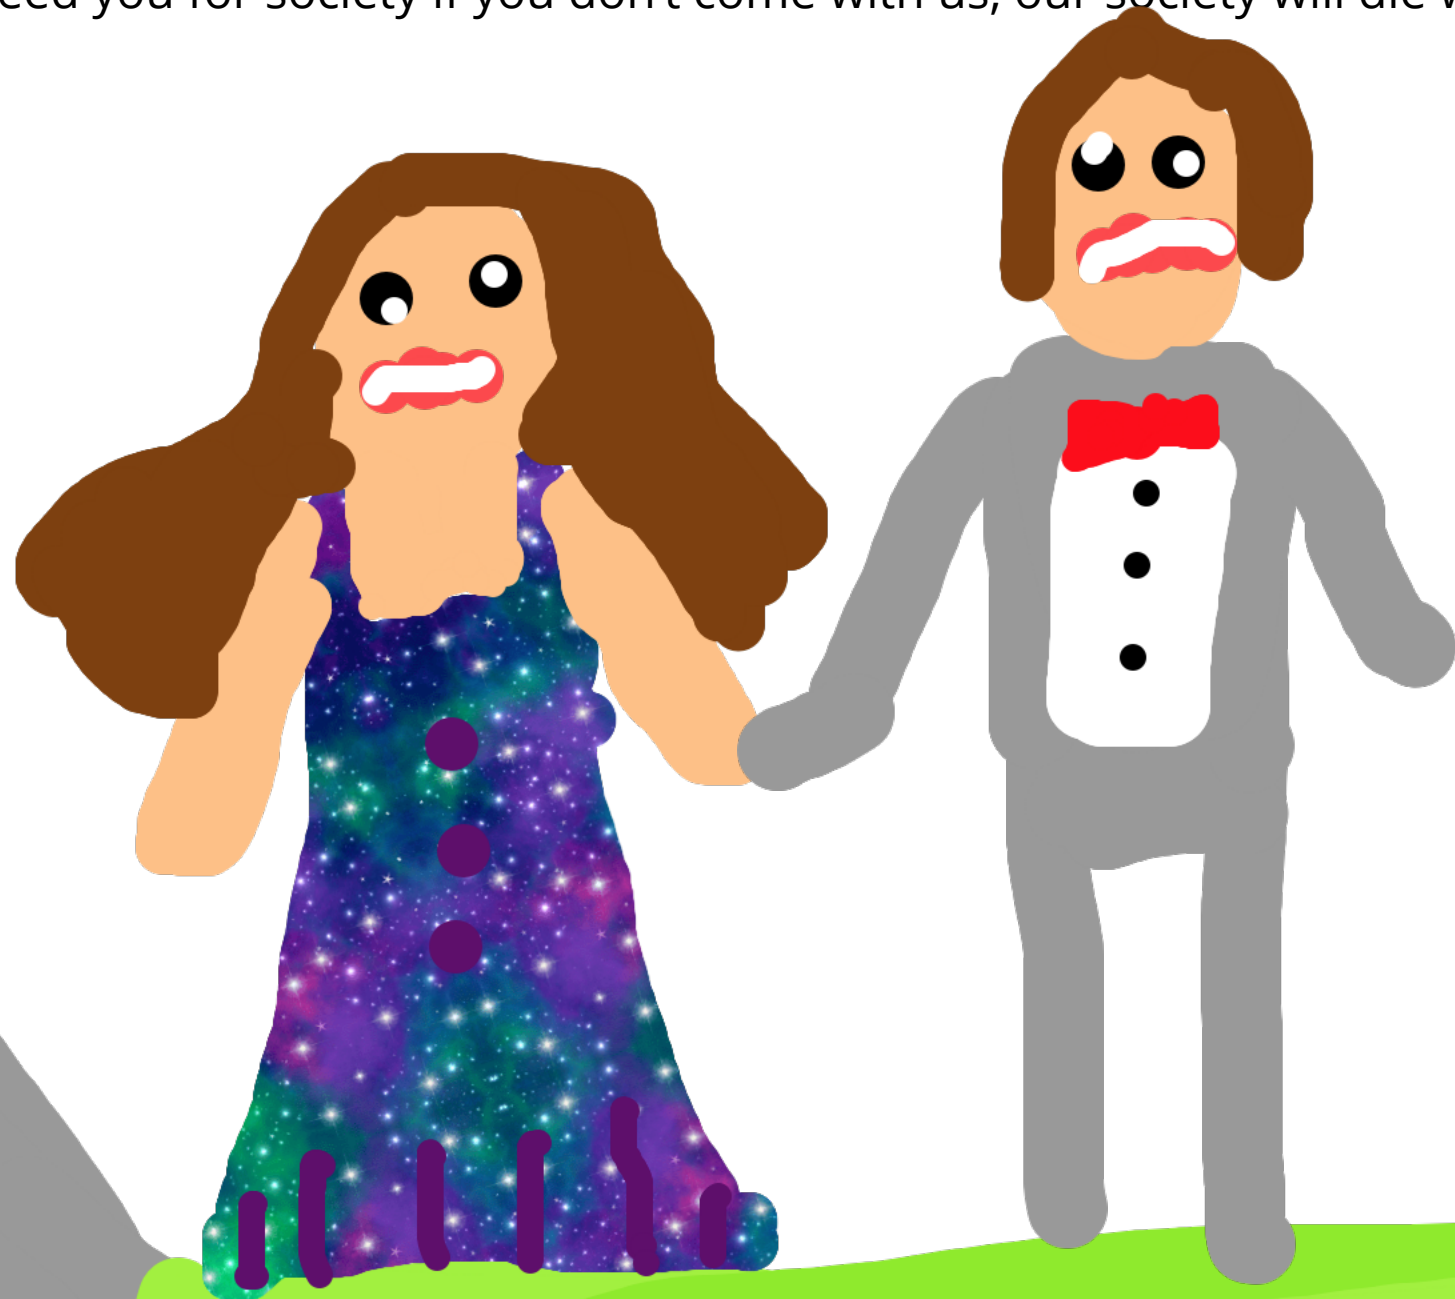

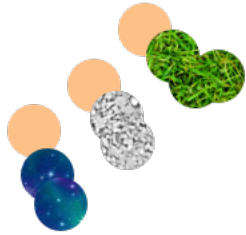

After they left, Rosie and Addison came across a giant mountain that went above the clouds. Rosie said "look it's a bird!" Addison said "no it's a plane!".....

But then Addison said “no I was wrong. It’s people?” That out of nowhere the mystery people came down and landed right in front of them. The woman said “ Addison we have been looking everywhere for you.” The man said “ we are happy we finally found you. Have you unlocked your powers yet?” Then Addison says “ what the heck is going on?” then the woman and man both say “we’re your parents” then Addison jaw dropped. The man and woman say we are your real parents and they say you’re the princess of wind. We need you for society if you don’t come with us, our society will die without a ruler.

Addison says "mom dad is it really you?" "yes it is" they say. She runs to them and they hug. "Addison is this really goodbye?" "no it isn't. You may not be my sister by blood but you are my sister in my heart. I care about you and I will never forget you. I will visit whenever I can I love you Rosie." As Addison and her parents turn to their wind form and fly away, Rosie says "good luck see you when you come back. I love you" and one tear comes down her face in happiness and in sadness.

THE END
