

Unicorn and Horse become friends

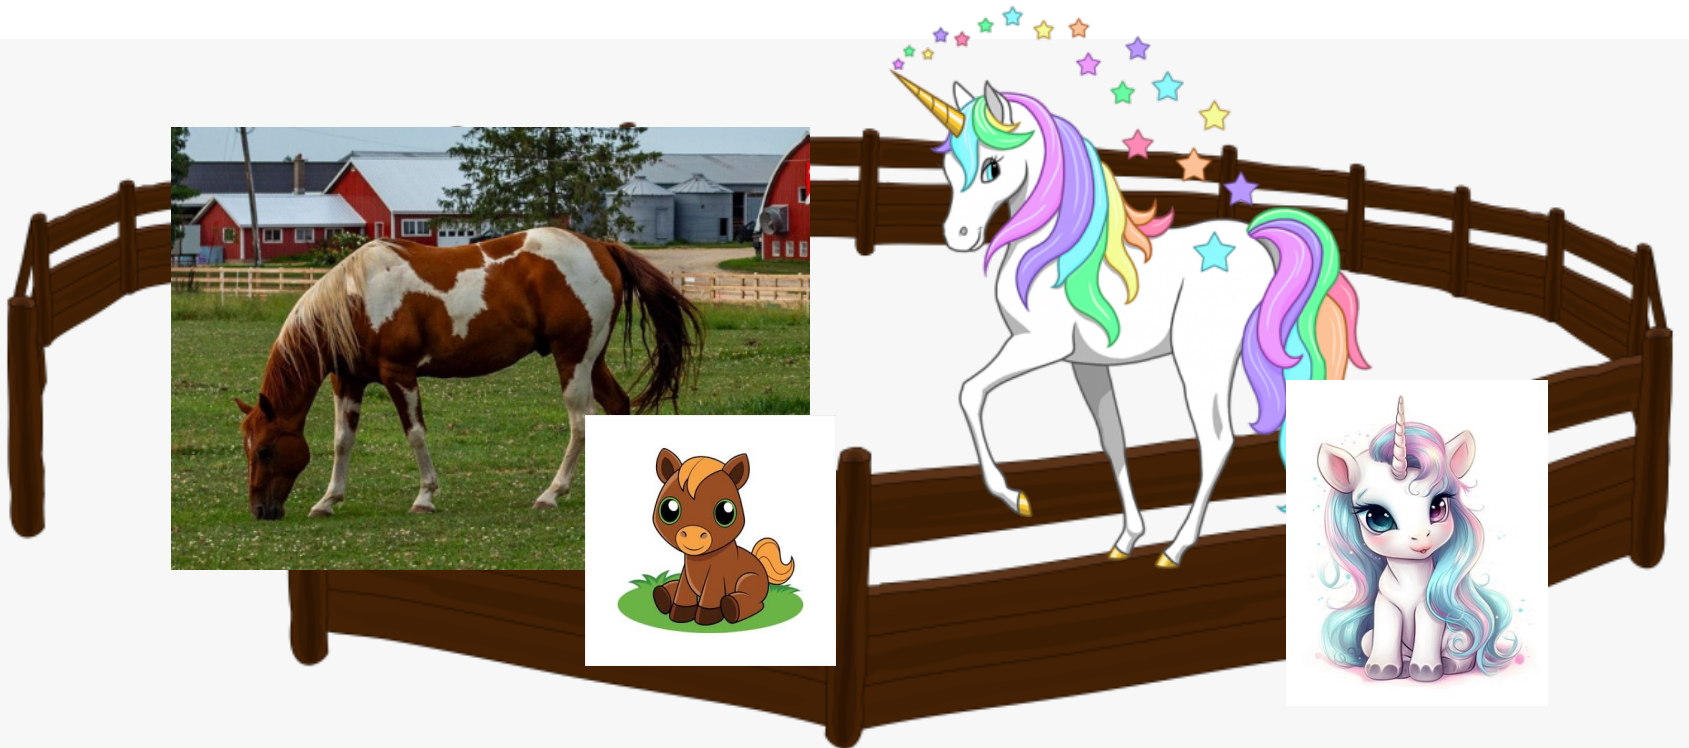

By: Olivia and Natalie

Once upon a time, there was a mommy unicorn and a mommy horse who both had babies.

The mommy horse and the baby horse were in the same pen as the mommy unicorn and the baby unicorn.

One day the baby unicorn and the mommy unicorn moved away.

The baby unicorn grew up in a different pasture than the baby horse.

As time went by, they grew up in separate homes.

Both the horse and unicorn met each other again at the fair. They were in the barrel racing competition.

At the end of the competition, the horse won.

The unicorn went up to the horse and said
“congratulations!”

Back at home, the horse found out that she was moving.

So she moved.

The unicorn and horse lived together again.

They become best friends again.

The end!
